Distinguished Alums to Receive Awards

FIVE DISTINGUISHED Service Citations will be awarded Friday night at Fieldhouse Frolics by the Alumni Association.

Those receiving the awards are U. S. Congressman Aldous Dixon, Dr. Ray Olpin, Sherman Christensen, Kathryn Purdee, and Dr. Howard R. Driggs.

Some of the awards are outstanding service to humanity, the nation, the state, the community, the Church, and Brigham Young University. An anonymous committee appointed by President Ernest L. Wilkinson and the Board of Trustees, Lynn Richards, chose the winners.

REP. DIXON is a representative from Utah, former president of Weber College and the Utah State Agricultural College.

Dr. Olpin, president of the University of Utah, was faculty president at BYU in 1921-22.

Mr. Purdee, assistant professor of speech at BYU, has 22-30 years in the service of the University.

Christensen is the first Latter-day Saint man to be named to the position of federal judge for Utah District.

Dr. Driggs, born in Pleasant Grove, was head of the math department at New York University until he re-

Saturday to Climax Months of Activity

MONTHS OF PLANNING and weeks of anticipation by Homecoming committee members will be climaxed with a full day of homecoming activities Saturday.

The celebration, under the direction of Dr. Henry L. Jackson, student coordinator, and Bud Southon, student chairman, includes more people and more activities than any homecoming in Brigham Young University history.

Registration, campus tours, and alumni institute are on Friday's schedule for returning grads.

SMITH BANQUET HALL will be the scene of the annual Queen's Banquet, Homecoming committee chairman, school, church, state, and civic officials are slated as special guests. Immediately following the banquet the group will attend Fieldhouse Frolics in the Smith Fieldhouse.

Saturday morning activities include class reunions, breakfast and pep rally, topped off by the homecoming parade through downtown Provo.

Afternoon activities will see "Y" stadium the scene of a gridiron battle between BYU and Utah State Agricultural College, Logan. Immediately following the game, receptions will be held by organizations for alumni and students.

Conclusion of the "Y" as Alive in '55" week will be at the dances, which begin at 8:30.

Marching Band Halftime Program To Feature Glen Miller Numbers

A COLORFUL salute to the late Glen Miller will be presented by the Cougar marching band at halftime activities of the Homecoming game Saturday. It was announced by Howard Elinson, chairman of halftime activities.

This is the first major appearance in Provo for the band although they have participated in two other Homecoming games in Salt Lake City and Las Vegas.

THE BAND WILL perform several of Miller's hit songs in its program. The musical score will include "Chattanooga Choo Choo" and "Pennsylvania 6-8000." In the Mood" and "Kiss of the Spider Woman" will be enacted by the band with feature numbers by the Debonettes and Val Croosley, drum majorette from Los Angeles, Calif.

A NOVELTY ACT will be presented as alumni returning to Brigham Young University are represented by band members Jerry McCulloch of Provo, and Mike Crenshaw of Pittsburgh, Calif.

A further attraction will be the presentation of the Homecoming royalty. At this time, the band will play "Moonlight Serenade" with a trumpet solo by Larry Foster, Grand Junction, Colo.

The Cougar band is directed by Dick Ballou, Grand Junction, Colo.

The performance is scheduled for 2 p.m. in Smith Auditorium. The play will have Friday and Saturday night performances, its scheduled four-night run.

Legislators Adjourn, No Quorum

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL Wednesday night cancelled four committee reports because of insufficient quorum. The committee reports were from the attendance committee.

Meeting was adjourned when Dallas Merrill, junior president, questioned the presence of a quorum, the three-fourths membership who must be present to conduct business. Only 15 of the 40 registered members were present.

BEFORE the attendance was questioned, however, the Legislature voted to allow Alpine Club to schedule weekend activities though they may conflict with regular student-body activities.

They voted to refer complaints about assembly seating to an Assembly Conduct Committee now being formed by Ellen Keeler, student-body first vice-president.

BEN DICKINSON, senior class president, who brought up the complaint, had first suggested that the council vote to forbid any seat saving and empower the student body to enforce the rule. The student themselves were criticized for saving seats until they finished the work.

Student-body President Bud Tunney mentioned two possible campus insurance programs that are now under administration consideration.

Brochure Includes H'coming Schedule

Complete Homecoming schedule is included in a 16-page brochure being distributed free at Homecoming ticket booths in the Eyring Science Center and Smith Building.

Times, places and prices of the week's events are listed in chronological order in the blue and white booklet. The book also includes comments by President L. Wilkinson and by Lynn S. Richards, alumni president; descriptions of Homecoming events and pictures of Homecoming Queen Elaine L. Mike Warnick, Pedernault, Calif., was in charge of the brochure.

Worthal and Snarf Return to Campus

"Little Man on Campus" cartoon feature by Dick Elinson has been obtained for use by the Brigham Young University during the 1955-56 academic year. Elinson's cartoon will be used on the editorial page approximately every week. "Little Man on Campus" has been used as a cartoon feature in the University for the past several years.

"Baker Boucher," an annual student-body dance, which honors students and faculty members who depict characters of the cartoon, will be held Jan. 20. The creator of "Professor Snarf," "Worthal," and "Elinson" is now an instructor of art education and commercial art at Humboldt State College, Arcata, Calif.

The student enrollment of Brigham Young University has increased from less than 100 students in 1910 to 8,160 students, for fall quarter of 1955.

YU Enlarges Homecoming Every Year

by Jean Walling
University Staff Writer

HOMECOMING has grown considerably from the first Under's Day celebration in 1913 when the faculty and students marched to the table to hear a history of the school by President Karl G. Maeser.

Brigham Young Academy officially became Brigham Young University at the 1933 Founder's

On THE TWO mile grand procession decorated carriages were led in 1913. In 1925 there was a grand historic parade with floats and the students marched in classes.

By 1930 Founder's Day and Homecoming were celebrated separately. Social units and clubs entered a parade which passed in front of the stands between games of the football game.

KOLORADO STUDENT body voted and a Provo merchant got the 35 float in the 1946 parade. This was the first parade with a full homecoming celebration and the war time America of 1951, Colorado float led the 40 float 1951 parade.

Twilight parades have marked football rallies and dances during the years.

ALTHOUGH football games have been homecoming activities in highlights, from 1942-46 there was no football at YU. 1945 there was a homecoming parade in Provo, Utah, and a song and skill competition.

Five coronas were sought in 1946. The Y News, University's decision, stated that "an advisor to cougar hunters the announcement that the cougar who brings in the first mascot will have the privilege of crowning the queen." A $75 reward for the cougar.

Graduates remember cougar at the football games through 1950 and they believe they were given to the Salt Lake City where they were kept in cages.

Last year television appearances were arranged for the team and her attendants.

Parade Broadcast Begins at 9:30 Saturday Morning

KUTV-TV television cameras will be set up on the corner of Center St. and University Ave. Broadcast the largest homecoming parade to ever march through Provo.

More than 100 entries, including floats, twenty-two bands, several marching units and drill units, dignitary cars, and miscellaneous units will travel the parade route.

Parade positions will be posted on the north and south bulletin boards in the McKay Building and on the board in the student co-ordinators' office, Student Service Center basement, according to Dick Jackson, parade chairman. Notices will also be posted in all organization at boxes.

Bears in Provo is sponsoring televising of the parade. Also will go on the air at 9:30 in Saturday morning.

Starting at Third West and near St. the parade will proceed east to University Ave. where it will turn north and go to University to the South Pavilion parking lots.

Decoration Designed For 'Shock'

"SHOCKING" decorations are planned to "bring the Y to life" as means of a little electrification at Saturday night's Homecoming Dance 8:30 p.m. in Smith Fieldhouse, Social Hall, and Oakhill Ward Chapel 1499 N. 9 East.

Queens Made Forsythe, Oahu, Hawaii will be presented with her attendants Barbara Conroy, Arcadia, Calif. and JoAnn Lusk, Oahu, Salt Lake City.

EACH HALL will be visited by the traveling floor show performing for the guests and her escort, Miss Faye Snowflake, who is master of ceremonies. Included on the program will be songs by the Gay Notes and the Semantics.

The electric-type decorations are in the form of huge mobiles hanging from the ceiling, according to Diana Dolton, dance chairman.

Hot space order and cookies will be served in each hall for 10 cents.

ADMISSION price for the dance is 75 cents per couple. Tickets will be available at the door. The Y's Men band will play at the Fieldhouse, Main St. at the Social Hall and West Entry at the Oakhill Ward. All alumni are requested by dance committee to attend the Oakhill Ward dance.

YU FACES UTAH STATE!

Cougars Seek First Loop Win In Annual Wagon Wheel Clash

By Ken Clayton
Universe Sports Editor

Brigham Young's football team will attempt to recapture the Wagon Wheel for the first time in four years when they engage a tough Utah State eleven tomorrow at the Y Stadium. Game time is 1:30 p.m., with a capacity crowd expected.

The Cougars, who have won but one game in six attempts, will attempt to ring up their initial league victory tomorrow against the Utes. Thus far, BYU has only defeated weak two-year Los Angeles State, 33-0, and currently share the conference cellar position with New Mexico with four loop defeats.

Aggies Strong

Utah State has been rapidly improving and sport a 2-2 league slate. Last week the Farmers whipped a previously unbeaten Fresno State eleven at Logan, 33-14. Also, the Aggies have defeated Montana, 23-0, and New Mexico, 18-5, in conference competition.

The Ags possess the biggest line in the area, boasting a trio of 325 pound tackles in Red Henderson, Fred Halvorsen, and Tom Ramage. Also peeing the Utes are quarterback Kent Harris, halfbacks Jim Hall, Jack Whitcomb, and Ed Smith.

When Harris, the split T engine, is hot, there is no fear quarterback in the conference. Thus far he has been instrumental in the Farmers' record 45-13 and 14 T triumphs over the Cougars.

Cats Come Alive

On the other hand, the Cats gave some hope with their stellar performance against mighty Wyoming last week. Brigham Young outplayed the Cowboys only to fumble at crucial spots and drop the tilt to the "Folks, 14-6.

in the Sideline

by Jock Nelson

It's Wagon-Wheel time again Saturday and unless BYU comes up this year we might as well put the horses to pasture—will be completely de whorled. The Aggies have had the wheel the last three years and one more time would leave us without a stand on.

This Wagon Wheel business all started back in 1936 when the Elder Kex honorary groups of both colleges decided there should be a game trophy for the big game each year. They chose a Wagon Wheel memorial from one of the old wagons that was supposed to have crossed the plains with the pioneers, and we don't mean Denver.

Two last time we saw the Wagon Wheel change hands was on a snowy Saturday in 1932 in Logan. BYU won possession when the wheel the year before by a 24-21 win and they were doing their best to keep the darned thing in the Smith Building Lobby where it belonged. The game saw-sawed back and forth through the final minutes of the game, the Cougars would steal it, and had a chance to tie things up with a can also. There was a fumble and it ended 27-26. And the Cougars minus one wheel, and have been ever since.

But this may be the year we get mobilized again. We've got a sneaking hunch anyhow. After the BYU performance up at Wyoming last week, they may be ready. Actually, they haven't been as bad as their record shows.

Have you ever stopped to figure out where we would have in this season if we hadn't fumbled? We're not sure where we'd be but it would be better off than we are now. Fumbles killed against Wyoming, for instance. And although you couldn't exactly say that Utah beat us through our fumbles, they helped the Aggies considerably. Other games have been much the same way. It has not been so much how often we fumbled, but when practically always at the crucial time.

So the Wagon Wheel this weekend may depend on BYU's being butterfingers or not. Let's hope the boys tuck the ball away and use as much of that sticky-dangered resin stuff that they couldn't drop the ball if they wanted to. After all, what's a wagon without a wheel.

We caught the opening of basketball practice Tuesday and saw what we saw. You can figure on BYU being up there some-where this year. We have a chance to get a national ranking start-right off. BYU opens with UCLA for two nights here in Provo. The Bruins are ranked sixth in the nation. Along the way we hit Oregon, Penn State, Wake Forest, Michigan, Colorado, and Carolina State, ranked fourth, and naturally, Utah, now ranked third.

This is the most ambitious schedule the Cougars have ever tackled. It'll be a tough row, but nobody's going to have to be blamed for this outfit.

Dancing in the Streets...

Pre-Parade Breakfast Planned

FINAL ARRANGEMENTS for the Homecoming Breakfast Rally to be held at 7 a.m. Saturday morning on the lawn of the City-County Building, have been announced by Brook Nealer, pep rally chairman.

Radio station KIDK will have three remote facilities on hand to broadcast a portion of the entertainment program, as well as the breakfast proceedings.

ENTERTAINMENT will be provided by the Student Program Bureau, and will include a large variety of student talent.

Dancing will also be provided to the music of Max Smeets and his band. The dancing will take place in the roped-off street east of the breakfast area.

Food for the breakfast is being provided by Sutton's restaurant of downtown Provo on a non-profit basis.

A crowd of nearly one thousand students is expected to attend the combination rally-breakfast. Nealer therefore urged everyone to be in the serving area promptly at 7 a.m.

Order to be assured of receiving breakfast before the Homecoming Parade line-up begins.

Tickets in the form of a large and white lapel ribbon stating "BYU Homecoming 1955—Claw the Aggies" will be on sale in the lobby of the Joseph Smith Building and Evans Science Center until 5 p.m. Friday.

SERVING OF THE "hearty meal" will be done by the Cougarettes, coed marching group. The menu will include scrambled eggs, hash brown potatoes, sausage, toast and coffee.

Nealer further commented that based on the success of that, the first breakfast rally the affair will most probably become an annual occurrence.

Alumni Barbecue Slated for Saturday

AN ALUMNI BARBECUE will be held Saturday at 11 a.m. in the west end of the footballhouse, according to Ray Beckham, executive secretary of the Brigham Young University Alumni Association.

Tickets may be purchased at the Alumni Association office north end of former Health Center, for $1. Beckham stressed that students, faculty and friends are invited to attend the Barbecue.

Ray Rowland, Larry Block and other men from Geneva Steel Plant will begin barbecuing the meat Friday night

String Instrument Premieres In Area in Monday Symphony

BRIGHAM YOUNG University Symphony Orchestra will present the Violin & Amour in the first concert Nov. 7 at 8 p.m. in the Joseph Smith Auditorium. The program is being sponsored by the University Community Concert Association.

Special feature of the concert will be the performance of the Violin Concerto in A Minor by Viole d'Amour and String Orchestra, under the direction of Lawrence Sordal, a reliable criterion, the professional orchestras in this country need never fear a dearth of beautifully trained replacements in these personnel.

Symphony program will consist of the Violin concerto, Dvorak's "Symphony No. 4 in G Major," and the "Caucasian Sketches" by Ippolitov Ivanov.

every important city on the west coast from Canada to Mexico, and enjoys the reputation of being an outstanding university orchestra. It is composed of 33 musicians from the United States.

A CRITIC WHO reviewed one of the concerts presented by the group on tour said, "If the Brigham Young Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Lawrence Sordal, is a reliable criterion, the professional orchestras in this country need never fear a dearth of beautifully trained replacements in these personnel."

Symphony program will consist of the Violin concerto, Dvorak's "Symphony No. 4 in G Major," and the "Caucasian Sketches" by Ippolitov Ivanov.
